These fabrics are printed using a Batik technique, by hand and one by one. Each one of these garments is a unique piece, and if we can guarantee the general color of the fabric, the delicate Batik tones and patterns themselves might change from one piece to the next. This is part of the charm, beauty and originality of this range.

ADLIB FIESTA Silk Crepe

Vestido Artemis
402SC_OW

The Adlib fashion movement, inspired both by Ibiza's typical traditional folk clothes and dresses, and by the 60s Hippy movement, was initially started up in around 1971 by the Yugoslavian princess Smilja Mihailovitch. It allowed women to be more conscious of their bodies, and to dress in a more liberal, comfortable and elegant style, using also the traditional Folk clothes, especially the local cotton broderie underwear traditionally used by the local farming ladies! Her motto was: "Dress as you please... but with style!"

Being a member of the Official Ibiza Adlib platform, with this Adlib Flesta Collection Hippy Chick pays tribute to this tradition, and to Ibiza's notoriety as a legendary cosmopolitan Party Island...
